OPEN SOUTH ROAD JUNE 1

LAST OF TEN MILES PAVING COMPLETED TODAY.

ON NO. 18 TOMORROW

Atkinson Paving Crew Sets A Record for This Division, Laying 1,082 Lineal Feet in 11 Hours.

Highway No. 27 south of Maryville will be opened to traffic June 1, it was learned from the project engineer's office today, and it is barely possible that the road may open on May 30. Engineers from the division office at St. Joseph and headquarters office at Jefferson City will probably be here around June 15 to inspect the road for acceptance by the state.

Today the Atkinson Paving Co., was moving its equipment from the ten-mile paving project south of the city to the next paving job. It will undertake the 2.2 miles north of the city on Highway No. 18.

The short stretch of roadway adjoining the city which was not completed night before last, and the work halted yesterday on account of the rain, was finished in a couple of hours this morning, completing the last of the ten-mile stretch south of here that was commenced on September 12, 1924. M. N. Windle, superintendent of the Atkinson Paving crew here said this morning that his concern would start pouring concrete early tomorrow morning on the 2.2 miles project immediately north of Maryville. It will take about two weeks of good weather to complete this job.

Tuesday the Atkinson Paving Co., established a record for Division No. 1 of the State Highway system, for the highest run in one working day of eleven hours for a machine of the size used by this company. During the eleven hours 1,082 lineal feet of the eighteen foot highway was put down.

Would Outlaw Trading in All Grain Futures

Washington, May 14.—Outlawing of all trading in grain futures was the demand today of the Congressional farm bloc as the department of agriculture continued its investigation of the recent sensational "raid" of the Chicago wheat market to find some way to prosecute speculators under the grain futures act.

Farm bloc members heartily endorsed this move but insisted that the administration initiate legislation prohibiting all grain training. They urged that this action be taken at the next session of Congress.

Mr. and Mrs. John Jenson of Clyde are the parents of a daughter born this morning.

Another New Feature

The Democrat-Forum and Tribune is now publishing the daily livestock and grain market reports from St. Joseph, Kansas City, Omaha and Chicago, with the closing grain review from the Chicago Board of Trade.

COLLEGE VS. WELLS DAIRY

KINNAIRD'S CLASS IS IN MILK CONTEST.

13 IN COLLEGE HERD

The agriculture class in animal husbandry, held at the College under the direction of Roy A. Kinnaird, is having a milk contest with the Wells dairy farm.

Mr. Wells has in his herd a Jersey that produced 47.7 lbs. of milk. This high mark was beaten by one of the Jerseys in the herd; it belongs to the College when 51.6 lbs. or an even 6 gallons was received. Mr. Wells later raised this mark to 52 pounds. The class at the College is now working hard to increase the milk yield in order to produce more than did the milk producer owned by Mr. Wells.

The stock on the College farm now includes thirteen head of Jersey cows, nine of which are registered, six brood sows and twenty-seven spring pigs, a team of mules, and a draft mare.

The College has abandoned the experiment stations, according to Mr. Kinnaird and has converted the land into pasture fields for the stock. The land north of the College is now being utilized in a three-year rotation plan. Corn, oats, and clover being raised in alternate years.

The classes in soils and crops under W. W. Stanfield, are now spraying the orchards. Mr. Stanfield said that this was the proper time to start spraying the fruit trees. The apple trees will require five and six sprayings while the other fruit trees can be protected with about three sprayings.

The classes are also studying insect enemies at the present time. They have found a large number of insect enemies and are studying preventative measures.

In the College garden all sorts of fresh vegetables may be found. These are used by the cafeteria at the Residence Hall.

Tomato, cabbage, and sweet potatoes plants are being sold by the class from the hothouse beds at the present time. A far greater number of the small plants have been cultivated than can be used in the College garden.

Mr. Stanfield said that the agriculture department at the College had been swamped by schools wishing agriculture teachers. There is at present a bigger demand than ever before but all of the requests are being accommodated.

Warrants for all the assessors except in Atchison and Grant townships were received for the last year's work, which bills were certified into the state auditor's office early last June.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Welling of Leon, Ia., came yesterday for a few days' visit with their son, G. M. Welling, and family.

MORE MONEY FOR DRY ARMY

69TH CONGRESS MUST APPROPRIATE MORE.

YEAR'S COST MOUNTS

For Efficient Law Enforcement More Than 100 Million Will Be Needed, Conclusions of Officials.

New York, May 14—If prohibition and liquor-smuggling laws in the United States are to be enforced to the letter, the Sixty-inth Congress must appropriate more than one hundred million dollars for the job.

That is one of the conclusions of both official and unofficial observers of the government's gigantic drive to exterminate rum row, it was learned today.

This year's cost of the enforcement of prohibition laws was approximately forty million dollars, and it is considered highly unlikely that Congress will extend that figure materialy in the next budget, regardless of what experts believe is necessary.

A survey of the rum situation disclosed that to effect an air-tight protection to the coasts, the government must maintain a fleet of close to one hundred sea-going cutters and two hundred heavily-armed patrol boats. It would take from 7,000 to 10,000 men to man this "army."

No Direct Evidence Against Young Dillon

But Prosecutor Mueller Says That Coroner's Inquest Next Tuesday Might Change Status of Case.

St. Louis, May 4.—Fred Mueller, state's attorney, today declared that the evidence at hand did not warrant the summoning of a special grand jury to investigate the activities of George Dillon, 19-year-old psychology student, recently released as the suspected murderer of his father, Dr. William A. Dillon.

"Although we have found some pointed circumstantial evidence that might demand an explanation from young Dillon as to where he was the night of the murder, he still refuses to talk and I do not deem this evidence sufficient to take before a grand jury," Mueller said.

However, he added that the resumption of the coroner's inquest next Tuesday might change the present status of the case.

French Plan Drive Against Riffians

Calm Characterizes the Spanish and French-Morocco Situation Today—Fez is Objective.

Tetuan, Morocco, May 14.—A foreboding calm characterized the Spanish and Fench Morocco situation today as the French prepared for a monstrous drive against the 22,000 Riffian tribesmen, who have been battling to reach and capture the important city of Fez.

Authentic sources gave the information that the French had "suffered severe reverses to their 30,000 men" and that "further reinforcements were being rushed from southern France."

Prosecutors May Get Back Salaries, 1921

Assistant Attorney-General Interprets Recent Decision of Supreme Court Relative to McCaffrey Case.

Jefferson City, May 14.—Prosecuting attorneys are entitled to collect back salaries since 1921 under a ruling today by George W. Crowder, assistant attorney-general, interpreting the recent decision of the Supreme Court declaring invalid the law of 1921 reducing the salaries.

The assistant attorney-general declared prosecuting attorneys are entitled to their salaries on a basis of the law, which the 1921 legislature sought to repeal. He sent the letter to Stephen Barton of Scott County, who had raised the question whether the additional salary was effective for the intervening period, or whether it applied only since the decision of the Supreme Court.

BANKER TAKES HIS OWN LIFE

INSTITUTION IS CLOSED

Shooting Takes Place This Morning—Believed Poor Health Is Direct Cause of Suicide.

Savannah, Mo., May 14.—Robert H. McFadden, cashier of the Exchange Bank of Savannah, this morning killed himself by blowing his head off with a shotgun, according to Dr. C. O. Jefferies, coroner of Andrew County.

Followng the finding of his body in the basement of his home, the directors of the bank ordered it closed until the accounts can be audited by the state banking commission.

The shooting took place at 5:30 o'clock this morning. McFadden was nervous throughout the night, his wife said today, and about 5 o'clock started to get up and dress. She followed him to the basement and before she could stop him, he had grabbed the shotgun, pointed it at his head and pulled the trigger.

His son, the only child, will be graduated from the Savannah High School tonight.

It is generally believed here this afternoon that McFadden's poor health was the direct cause of the suicide and that the bank was not connected with the tragedy. This is only the general opinion, however.

A statement from the board of directors is expected shortly.

On April 28, the bank records were examined by a deputy state finance commissioner and the institution was reported in first-class condition.

The Exchange Bank had a total resources of $312,000, capital $10,000, loans, $218,000, and deposits of $272,000. The recent report of the bank showed the surplus to be $20,000.

Jefferson City, May 14.—The suicide of Robert H. McFadden, cashier of the Exchange Bank of Savannah, at his home early today, brought the announcement from the state banking department this afternoon that the institution had been closed.

McFadden, 47, was found in the cellar of his residence, his head blown off, and a shotgun grasped in his right hand.

No announcement was made as to whether any irregularities had been found in the bank's affairs.

GIVE REGARDS TO HINDENBURG

RECEIVES CONGRATULATIONS FROM DIPLOMATIC CORPS.

ON TO EARNEST WORK

New President of Germany Declares His Efforts Will Be With Conscientiousness and Full Devotion.

Berlin, May 14.—President Hindenburg today received the congratulations of the diplomatic corps.

Warren Delano Robbins, American Charge de Affairs, was seated in the semi-circle with other envoys at the reception at the president's palace when Papal Nuncio Pacelli, in a brief speech, congratulated the president.

Hindenburg thanked the diplomatic corps and expressed the hope that Germany, with God's help, would get back on its feet. The old soldier shook hands with each of the envoys.

Pacelli voiced the congratulations of the diplomatic corps to the new president. Replying, Hindenburg said, "What I can do shall be done with earnest conscientiousness and full devotion. If all people are imbued with the same will, God's blessing, which you have invoked, will not be withheld from the world."

Dodge Stock Barred From Sale in State

Deputy Finance Commissioner Issues Cease and Desist Order Against K. C. Firm Selling Securities.

Jefferson City, May 14.—Fenton T. Stockard, deputy finance commissioner, today issued a cease and desist order to prevent the sale of the Dodge Bros., Inc., stock in Missouri on the grounds that the company has never been licensed to sell securities in the state.

A similar order was directed against J. E. Weber & Co., at Kansas City, which has offered for sale the Dodge Bros., Inc., stock.

The action was taken after a complaint had been filed with Deputy Commissioner Stockard in charge of the blue sky department by the Better Business Bureau of Kansas City. The bureau forwarded data to Stockard showing the Weber Company was offering the Dodge Bros., stock on a basis of one share preferred and one share common for $100. The company offered to sell the stock for $10 down and 10 per cent payable monthly, with one share of common stock as a "bonus," which was of no par value, according to Stockard.

The cease and desist order was issued against the Weber company because it had no permit to sell stock in the state. Its permit to sell securities was revoked May 20, 1924 by former deputy finance commissioner Hurwitz on the ground that the company had offered for sale various stocks which had not been registered in Missouri.

Des Moines Citizen Walks Up to His Majesty and Says, "Howdy, King; Shake Hands With America."

Wembley, England, May 14.—While some Americans spend thousands of dollars to be presented to King George at court and through diplomatic introduction, John Cownie of Des Moines Ia., brushed aside all formality today and went up to the king and shook hands with him.

Striding along, the American saw the king a few feet away. He rushed up to His Majesty, put out his hand, and said, "Howdy, King; shake hands with America."

King George was astounded, but smilingly shook hands and replied, "I hope all you Americans are feeling well."

The American leaped into momentary fame as a result of this informal meeting with the king. All afternoon papers made a feature of the story and characterized the meeting as an "astounding but humorous incident."

Foundation of Good Citizenship In Homes of Country, Says Student

The following essay on "The Foundation of Good Citinzenship," written by Clifford Johnson, a student in the eighth grade in the Hopkins school, won second prize in the grade school division of the county-wide essay contest, recently conducted by the Democrat-Forum.

Good citizenship starts in the home. Then it grows until it reaches the church, the town, and the nation. This development is necessary because good citizenship in the nation is impossible unless the chldren have been taught obedience in the home. One must live within the rules of the home before one will live within the bounds of the National and State Constitutions.

Good citizenship, to the child, deals more with rights than with duties. For the older citizen, it is concerned with obligations. The reason for this difference is that the needs of the child are great in proportion to his abilty to help others.

When a child is born he becomes not simply a citizen of the United States, but what is more directly valuable to him during his early years, a member of a home. To a large extent, the rights of the child are his rights in the home. He is entitled to a good start in life. Two of the greatest rights of childhood are the rights to a fair degree of health and to a place in a real home. The child who lacks either of these is deprived of a large part of his heritage as an American citizen.

If he goes into the world weak physically he is not only handicapped in his personal fght wth life, but he is denied the opportunity of giving to others the help and support that should be offered by a normal healthy child, youth or adult. Good health is an important element of good citizenship.

Not only does the child have a right to a strong body, but he also has the right to a sanitary home and favorable surroundings. The home, the community, and the nation must each do its share in making this right of childhood. After all, the carelessness of mothers may be a minor cause of infant mortality. One reason for some of the filth in the home and community is the sunless tenamant houses and filthy alleys—failures of the community rather than of the family.

The youth, to be a good citizen, should look forward into the future, and decide what he will do when he is through school. He should go to school because it is a citizen's duty to get a good education so that he can obtain a worthy position and be financially independent. This education will also help him to know the laws of the naton, state, and city and it will teach him obedience to these laws. Usually a person educated in the right way is a good citizen.

For the normal citizen, rights and obligations must go together. Moreover, good citizenship must be measured by the emphasis placed upon obligations. The greatest citizen of every community is the one who really does most for it, not the citizen for whom most is done.

Only four classes of American Citizens are entitled to rights without being asked to do much in return. These are the little children, the crippled, the sick and the aged. Because of their age or physical disability these people are unable to contrbute ther share to the general welfare. They are exempt from most of the obligations, which the normal citizens must perform.

Those who insist on rights and refuse to meet the obligations fail in a great trust. They are social criminals. They have taken from loving parents, from earnest citizens, and from a beneficent country all that each could offer. In return, they have been selfish wasters and have gained profit by others loss.

He, who fulfills his obligations, obeys the laws, respects the constitution and loves the flag; who reverences the memory of his forefathers, without being bound by chains, of tradition; who establishes worthy home and business relations; and who above all, fears God and the consequences of sin, may well be called the ideal citizen—a worthy pattern for all Americans.

"Why! He's Nothing But Skin and Bones"
"Marry Him! Never"
"Quit kidding me, Agnes; when I get ready to land a man he's got to be a real man with plenty of good healthy flesh on his bones."
"Of course, I dance with Ed; He's a good enough fellow and I just feel sorry for him, but no skinny, hollow cheeked, spindle shanked lath is going to sail the voyage of life with me."
Cheer up—Ed—things aren't as bad as they look to you right now. Many hundreds of skinny, gaunt, emaciated men looked even worse than you do till someone told them about McCoy's Cod Liver Oil Tablets (the new way to take Cod Liver Oil) and how it would put pounds of good firm, healthy flesh on their bones in just a few weeks.
Nothing like these health creating, weight producing tablets for skinny, underweight men, as thousands can testify. Start to take them today—60 tablets—60 cents at Maryville Drug Co., Gaugh & Evans, or any real druggist anywhere in North or South America.
And listen; If they don't put 5 pounds of good flesh on you in 30 days, get your money back — that's fair enough, but be sure—very sure that you get McCoy's Cod Liver Oil Compound Tablets—the original and genuine.

Ford Prepared to Buy U. S. Merchant Fleet

Would Scrap the Ships for Junk He Says—News Follows Conference With T. V. O'Connor.

Washington, May 14.—The proposal of T. V. O'Connor, chairman of the United States shipping board, to sell four hundred of the government's wartime ships to Henry Ford kicked up another row today among members of the board.

Various shades of opinion were expressed, most outspoken of the members being Commissioner F. I. Thompson, who declared the government should not sell the ships to Ford or anyone else.

Detroit, Mich, May 14.—Henry Ford will purchase the four hundred vessels of the United States shipping board if the government will fix what he considers a fair price according to a story which appears in the Detroit Free Press today. The announcement was made yesterday afternoon by Mr. Ford, following a conference with T. V. O'Connor, chairman of the shipping board, the story says.

O'Connor is quoted as asking Mr. Ford to take over 200 ships in his original suggestion, the article says. However, when Ford informed him that he would only buy the ships to scrap them for junk, Mr. O'Connor suggested that he buy all four hundred as it would not cost much more to construct dismantling apparatus to handle the four hundred ships than it would the lesser number.

Mr. Ford agreed to this, saying that he might retain from ten to thirty of the ships for use by Ford industries. If any ships were put in operation, they would be reconditioned and equipped as oil burners, the article states.

Despite the tentative agreement, the matter of the sale of the ships to Mr. Ford will not be cleared up for several months, it is estimated. The shipping board has been wary of making any agreement heretofore, as it felt if the ships were sold abroad to be scrapped, such promises might be broken and the ships might reappear under foreign flags in competition with American ships.

Washington, D. C., May 14.—Members of the shipping board last night said they had no knowledge of any proposal from Chairman O'Connor to Henry Ford for purchase of the government's merchant vessels by the manufacturer, but that they "welcomed the news" of his reported willingness to buy the ships at a fair price.

Rum Row "About Done For" on East Coast

Only 6 Rum Ships Remain Out of 42 Off New York Since Dry Offensive Opened Week Ago.

By William J. Losh
United Press Staff Correspondent.

New London, Conn., May 14.—Rum Row off New York has almost completely surrendered before the coast guard's smashing campaign.

Of 42 rum ships hovering off the port when the dry offensive opened a week ago, only six vessels remained there Wednesday, according to official service reports reaching there.

A majority of the smugglers have shifted their base of operations to the southern New England coast, where a second phase of the coast guard's "starve or surrender" campaign now is due to open.

The departing rum ships are dogged by coast guard patrols wherever they go. The dry navy intends to keep the liquor laden vessels from obtaining supplies at all costs, until the latter are forced to leave American waters. Their final abandonment of the coast is expected to be followed by a breakup of the liquor traffic's organization. With no liquor being landed, it is believed the shore agents will have to take up other means of livelihood.

Once the short organization is broken up, it is believed, it will be difficult for the big smugglers to reconstitute it.

A striking feature of the successful campaign off New York has been the total absence of violence. No seizures have been attempted; no resistance offered.

So rigid has been the blockade, that it is reported skippers of rum ships are offering to swap cases of liquor for New York newspapers to learn what is going on.

The next development of the "dry" navy campaign, it is anticipated will be extension of the blockade off the New England coast. It is hoped the rum fleet gradually will be crowded around Cape Cod and out into open sea.

Sixteen rum boats were seized during the winter campaign and 14,000 cases of choice liquors are under customs seal.

Coast guard officials estimate that all told 380 rum ships have been engaged in the smuggling trade since rum running off the Atlantic seaboard became popular.

An official inspection party left here Wednesday aboard the coast guard cutter Pequot for a three day survey of the situation along Rum Row. Lieutenant Commander Stephen Yeandle, aide to Admiral Billard, commander of the coast guard, was in charge.

Mr. and Mrs. S. H. Townsend went to St. Joseph this morning.

Ed Gallagher, Ravenwood; Mrs. Emma Mitchell, Bedford, Ia.; and C. B. Harmon and son, Pickering, were Maryville visitors yesterday.

Judge Olsen's Son Declares Prosecutor Has "Just Begun To Fight"— Mrs. Shepherd Released

Chicago, May 14.—The announced determination of Judge Harry Olsen to prove both Mr. and Mrs. William D. Shepherd guilty of the alleged murders of Mrs. Emma McClintock and her son, William Nelson McClintock, remained unchanged today by the grand jury's action yesterday of voting "no bills" on the coroner's jury recommendations that the woman be held as an accessory.

"We have just begun to fight," Sanford Olsen, the Judge's son, who is temporarily "holding the fort" while his father is out of town on a speaking engagement, said this afternoon.

"The first case my father prosecuted as state's attorney was one in which a "no bill" has been returned. He fought it through, however, to a hanging verdict."

Miss Josie Sadler, Mrs. Robert Oliphant and Eb Simmons of Pickering left today for Rochester, Minn., to undergo examinations at the Mayo clinic.

Fred and Ola King of Pickering are visiting their grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Broyles of Wilcox, this week.

Closing Grain Review.

Chicago, May 14.—Wheat futures soared to a sharp higher close on the Board of Trade today. Coarse grains followed. May wheat was up 7 cents, the largest single day's gain in several weeks.

Good speculative support responded to the general run of bull wheat news. Unfavorable crop developments were reported from practically all sections of the growing belt.

Buying orders prompted by strengths in the leading cereal came into the corn market and sent prices to a fractionally higher close.

Oats worked to a higher point on strength derived from other grains. Provisions held relatively steady.

Pickens Gives Address Today on the Missouri Association

George A. Pickens, general secretary of the Missouri Association, gave an address today at Houston, Tex., at the national Ad Club of the World. His subject was "How the State of Missouri has Organized to Sell her Resources to the World."

The address follows:

A well known writer of the day who is also a keen analyst and observer of human nature in all of its phases, has said that "The path of civilization follows the trail of the tin can." I would paraphrase that pertinent analysis of the world at large by saying that "The path of civilization and progress follows the trail of the men of vision who are able to scout ahead beyond the outposts of known issues, probe the possibilities of the economic future, and blaze the way for the great army of less gifted ones who are struggling toward the goal of a better citizenship and a greater statehood.

In this great nation of ours, there is no reason why one state or section should excel to a marked degree or progress more rapidly than any other, unless it be from lack of enterprise among individuals or lack of the keen-visioned leadership I have just mentioned. BUT possessing both of these attributes any community, state or nation is bound to advance.

We Missourians, as a class, have ever been conservative to a pronounced degree; lacking nothing in the way of natural resources and bountiful environment, our citizens have been contented for years to live quietly, enjoying the good the gods give and caring little whether or not the outside world knew of our rich interior, our teeming industrial cities, mineral wealth, diversity of agricultural products and other economic assets. Publicity and advertising of even a state-wide nature, has but little place in the great scheme of things as far as the average Missouri citizen was concerned; he exercised the "Divine Right of Kings" in a little monarchy of his own and was quite content to have it that way.

During the past decade, however, a gradual change has taken place, due to the far-sightedness of such state leaders as my good friend, Charley Hatfield, president of your Community Advertising Department. Mr. Hatfield was one of the first to see the need of a state organization for publicity purposes in Missouri and to spread the idea abroad whenever opportunity offered. Thus it came about that Missouri leaders of the State Press Association and Commercial Organizations began to feel the need of a greater acquaintance with the outside world, a more comprehensive knowledge of the state's potentialities, and a broader outlook than the mere confines of their own backyards afforded.

An organization to sell Missouri to Missourians and then to the rest of the world; to exploit the unexcelled resources and advantages of the state in a way that would mean substantial progress was the vision of two hundred delegates composed of business and professional men, farmers and newspaper men from all sections of the state, who sat in excutive session in the State Capitol at Jefferson City, on April 6 and 7, 1923. Stirring speeches were made by the enthusiasts at the meeting and like the shot that echoed round the world, their influences was felt throughout the state and we began to look about and take stock of ourselves.

So the Missouri Association came into being at that meeting and up to this time has weathered all of the ills attendant upon organization babyhood days. It is now a husky infant just past its second birthday anniversary, and while it has not been entirely free from the growing pains that are peculiar afflictions of childhood, I assure you ladies and gentlemen, it is well past the catnip and peragoric age.

Briefly stated, the Missouri Association proposes to federate all of the constructive organizations of the state for the exploitation of her resources, her social, educational, agricultural and industrial advantages; to build and foster a larger state pride through proper publicity and advertising; to sell Missouri to her own citizens through maintaining a research bureau for collecting worth while facts as to the economic standing of the commonwealth as compared with other states, and to disseminate these facts free of charge at all times, through all of the available avenues of publicity.

In connection with the last named activity I want to mention that the columns of practically every newspaper in the state are open to the Association for publicity purposes along any lines connected with state-wide progress. When I return from this trip I have receipted contracts for several thousand dollars worth of advertising space contributed by seventy-five of the leading newspapers of the state, to use in any way I may choose for advertising the Association and its work for a Greater Missouri. This space is graciously offered by the progressive editors of the state who believe that when we pull for Missouri we are pulling for ourselves and that what is good for the state as a whole is good for every citizen within its borders. I believe I can safely say that this generous contribution of space for state advertising is something that the press of no other state has done.

Builded upon the lines of a state chamber of commerce, but reaching into a vastly broader field, The Missouri Association includes in its membership individuals, Companies and Corporations, Kiwanis and Rotary Clubs, Chambers of Commerce and rural community clubs, and many other state organizations, among them being state grain-dealers, state press, state teachers association, State Banker's Association, Farm Bureau Federation, federated women's clubs, with county and regional groups of these same bodies. We believe that with all of these interests merged for the common goal of state advancements we cannot fail to make substantial and permanent progress.

A surprising awakening came, when through state surveys and research work we began to prepare our plans for active functioning. After making only a tentative survey, we found that millions of dollars of Missouri wealth is being used to develop other states, particularly along the western coast, because those states long ago learned the value of advertising and publicity to attract new capital in state building. We found that our state through lack of foresight was allowing thousands of citizens to be lured away carrying with them the capital that should have been used for our own interior development. We found that Missouri products were being marketed in many localities under local labels and with no credit given to the state that produced them, due somewhat to lax enforcement of trade laws, but mainly to lack of forethought and state pride among our producers in that they did not put out their surplus under a Missouri trade-mark or label.

Through a campaign now in progress The Missouri Association hopes to remedy to some extent the evil I have just mentioned. In promoting a greater consumption of home products by Missourians, we have designed a slogan sticker that is going to be known as Missouri's trade-mark, from the Pacific coast to the Atlantic seaboard. This little sticker in orange, blue and black, carries the slogan "Use Missouri grown, milled, mined and made products" and it may be used on letters, envelopes, parcels or manufactured goods. In addition to carrying a real appeal to the Missouri housewife and other consumers, to favor home products in making purchases, it will help to create a new pride among producers when they see the Missouri trade-mark on their commodities going out into other states, and it will stand for quality in the minds of purchasers in foreign markets.

In conjunction with the columns of the press, we have found that radio publicity is one of the most effective methods of interesting our own people and those of other states in what Missouri has to offer the home-seeker and investor. Twice each month it is my general privilege as general secretary of the Mssouri Association, to deliver an address upon development and progress, from the state-owned radio broadcasting station in the dome of our State Capitol Building at Jefferson City. Responses are received from all over the United States, Canada and Mexico and some of the island possessions, with inquiries about Missouri lands, industries and possibilities for investment.

We have in the past two years put out hundreds of thousands of pieces of literature to these inquiries giving very valuable publicity to our state. These inquiries from sincerely interested persons who express a desire to locate with us, are carefully tabulated, mimeographed and sent out to reliable sources with the request that only the "Truth in Advertising" about Missouri be mailed out to any inquirer, and that in giving out information to possible home-seekers, they give only practical facts that will help us to secure a good class of immigration. We are urging every citizen of the state to identify himself with the work of spreading truthful propaganda about our resources and advantages, with the completion of our great system of state-highways we believe that a wonderful era of industrial and agricultural development is at hand in Missouri, therefore the mud-turtle kind of citizen has no place in our movement for state advancement. To draw within one's shell and live for self alone will never aid us in reaching the goal of undoubted state prestige. The sponsors of The Missouri Association believes that the state is primarily a business propostion and the people are stockholders in it. When a business in commercial life fails it is usually credited to one of two things; a poor bunch of stockholders or an incapable board of directors. Here is where The Missouri Association will play an important part in the future progress of the state, by making it a first class business proposition from all standpoints.

Now in bringing you this message as to "How the State of Missouri Has Organized to Sell Her Resources to the World," I am sure you will want to know something of our method of securing funds for carrying on activities of such a state-wide nature. Definite financing is always a major problem in effective work. Up to this time, The Missouri Association for a Greater Missouri has functioned on something less than ten thousand dollars annually, actual working funds, secured wholly through memberships. I would hasten to add however, that ten thousand dollars worth of poster advertising used during our early organization period was donated by the Missouri Branch of the Tri-State Poster Association and the Missouri Federation of Women's Clubs This with the unlimited newspaper space available at all times, the free services of the many prominent men of the state who compose our Speaker's Bureau, the quantity of local and regional literature and publicity material furnished us by towns and counties and by our splendidly efficient State Board of Agriculture would probably bring our finances including these valuable working materials up to twenty thousand dollars annually. As yqou see, we have begun in a small way and shall grow slowly and safely to larger things.

I do not wish to infer that The Missouri Association is offering anything new for your consideration; conservative advertising for all of the people of a state by all of the people of a state is not an experiment It has been tried and proven by many big industries and many state movements. Therefore we believe that The Missouri Association, in order to justify its existence as a power for constructive bulding, must bring every community in the state to a common understanding of the potency of publicity and advertising in their relation to the economic problems of the state as a whole. Hence our first definite aim to sell Missouri to Missourians and then to the rest of the world

Briefly our major activities may be classified as follows: To answer all inquiries concerning the advantages real and potential afforded by our state and to furnish pamphlets and literature bearing on every phase of industry and agriculture; to give practical assistance to all organization trying to solve community problems and develop community leaders with state-wide vision; maintain an efficient speakers bureau and carry on junor work; stimulate domestic industries through increasing home consumption of home products; promote immigration by nation-wide publicity through all available channels; we shall capitalize the economic assets of our state in such a way as to increase our buying power. In short we shall do what men of vision know should be done to develop a Greater Missouri, believing that the growth of a state can be no greater than the growth of its local communities; that a state or nation is not made great by its geographical location but by the inspired vision of its people, that undying spirit of the pioneer fathers, which has been transmuted in the great melting-pot of the nation into splendid element that make for a sterling citizenship and an imperial statehood

The Name of Sally Is Nowhere To Be Found On Birth Record

Could it be the recent popular song "What's Become of Sally?" broadcast generously throughout the States was written for the purpose of reviving the splendid name of "Sally?"

It may be that it is a little early to predict whether it has had any effect on the naming of babes born the last few months, but a diligent search of the birth records for the last twelve months to date did not disclose one single "Sally."

Instead, on the blue books in the County Health Department for the township of Polk, are found the names of Marie, Mary, Margaret, Betty, Jean, and Jane, Doris and Louise, leading in numerical order.

The Marys lead in number, followed by Betty or Bettie, then the Maes, and Maries tieing, with Jean or its contractions trailing.

The tendency of the present day naming of children is to give them double names. The great majority of children christened this last year, referring now to females, were given two names. The old stand-by Mary, still predominates, but always with another name attached. Not one Mary was found unaided and alone. Here are the Marys that were found on the birth records:

Mary Elizabeth, Mary Virginia, Mary Lee, Mary Ellen, Mary Rose, Mary Margaret and Mary Alice. Next comes Betty, or Bettie, just as you please to spell it. The examples are Betty Joe, Betty Mac, Betty Jean, Betty Dale, Betty Louise, Betty Clair Betty Jo, and Betty Lou.

Jean is popular now, although spelled in different ways: Ruby Jean, Clarlene Jean, Gerald Geen, Lois Gene, Beatrice Jean, Florence Jean and Darl Gene. And Louise still seems to be good, but is placed secondary, as: Alice Louise, Mabel Louise, Emma Louise and Norma Louise.

The Maes are still remembered by fond parents as Celia May, Alice Mae, Donna May, Ella Mae, Bula May, Lela Mae and Audrey Mae.

And Marie prevails as much as ever, but it is presumed that both the names are used when Aliela Marie, Lota Marie, Agnes Marie, Hattie Marie, Alberta Marie, Helen Marie, Verlene Marie and Marcella Marie, are called to answer to the telephone.

Doris Agnes, Doris Louise, Doris Maxine, Doris Lucille, Doris Loretta, Velma Irene, Colita Irene, Opal Irene and Irene Elizabeth are other combinations that were discovered on the records, such as Virginia Joan and Daisy Joan.

Tinla Maxine, Beulah Cleola, Morriella Lavern, Alice Burrel, Katherine Geraldine, Laveta Fay, Helen Rose, Quinten DeWare, Maurice Frances, Virginia Belle, Catherine L., Gloria Joean, Audrey M., Laurel Eline, Gora Beatrice, Mildred Maude, Vera Zella, Dona Charlene, Morleas Dean, Edith Catherine, Metha Belle, Marian Kathleen, Joe Anu, Alice Marien, Helen Rozella, Marcella Grace, Annie Luretta, Beverly Clarice, Martha Belle, Iola Maude, Frances Louella, Donna Marelyn, Wilma Grace, Geneva Maxine, Mabel Osie, Virginia Pearl, Dacia Lou, Wanda Joy, Helen Pricilla, and Lois Margaret.

Then again these might do although some may be frowned upon by some, but bless the future of nine Nodaway County babies:

Lumeda Ruth, Lillian Josephine, Virginia Lee, Elizabeth Ware, Aimery Arcilla, Lillian Bernice, Ruth Ilene, Letha Mildred, Norma Lou.

Out of 131 names checked over the cognomens of baby daughters in Polk township, only sixteen have the happy outlook of having only one given name to remember in this day and age of the typewriter, to place down at the bottom of a letter:

Bessie, Jeanette, Pauline, Litha, Jean, Anabelle, Nota, Cleo, Elinor, Sarah, Ruth, Gilbertta, Carolyn, Joy, Gloria.

When it comes to naming the boys these days the popular tendency is, as for the girls, tack on a couple of front names, and such combinations as Charles Henry, William Henry, etc., are found. Instead of naming the boy Paul John, the reverse order was used. And when it comes to out of the ordinary listen to Kewpie, Billie, Leo, Bobbie Charles.

Maybe the comic strips may have something to do with the naming of the child, and if this is not the same as Harold Teen, it smacks of the same variety: Gerald Dean. But maybe this is wrong and the boy's mother had the good name of Dean before marriage and the father a brother who was named Gerald. It is sometimes to please the relatives that the names are annexed.

One thing that would benefit this great western country vastly more than a wholesale combination of railroads into big systems owned by eastern capitalists would be a more general ownership of western railroads by western people. The real owners of most of our railroads live in New York and New England with the limited perspective of the man who knows little or nothing of the vastness of the West and they can not be convinced of their mistakes of management until those errors are reflected in reduced earnings. It is then too late. Both the country and the roads would be benefitted by the investment of more western money in western railroads.

HOME MERCHANTS AND PEDDLERS.

The city of Columbia imposes a ridiculously small license upon merchandising concerns from large cities which send their representatives here to do business. Ten dollars a day is the maximum license. These concerns for this measly stipend paid for the privilege remain here two or three days and sell from $2,000 to $4,000 worth of merchandise—merchandise for which people pay dearly. These high class peddlers pay no taxes, incur no obligations of citizenship, contribute to no enterprises, and don't care a rap for Columbia or any of its enterprises or institutions. What they come for is to grab a big portion of the cream of the spring and fall business, and then hie back to where they came from. The city council should at least compel these itinerant tradesmen to pay a decent license—one more commensurate with the business they do and the dollars they take out of Columbia. Such an ordinance should be passed. Not one that is unreasonable and confiscatory, but one that will correct the ridiculously small license which this gentry pays to the city of Columbia for doing business here and enjoying the same privileges and advantages for which the Columbia merchant remunerates his home town in hundreds of ways.—Columbia Tribune.

New York has felt a decided earth tremor, proving that the metropolis is not entirely shock-prof, in spite of the kind of plays that still hold the boards there.—Louisville Courier-Journal.

Bachelor Says $5 Tax Is Too Small for Being "Free"

If Governor Sam A. Baker wants to raise some revenue tor the state of Missouri, he might try advocating an "old maid and bachelor" bill, such as was introduced in the Florida legislature Tuesday.

If this were to become a law in Missouri, one Maryville "lady in waiting" suggested this morning that enough could be raised here each year to run the College.

The bill as introduced in Florida provides a tax of $5 on every unmarried woman more than $25 years old and every unmarred man more than 30.

A male resident of Fort Myers, Fla., wrote the speaker of the House and placed a high valuation on his single blessedness. The communicaton was as follows:

"Noting the bill taxing bachelors $5 a year, I today am sending certified check for my tax. I will be away this summer and wish to do my part. Five dollars is too little. No real free man would object to paying $50 or even $500. Who ever heard of a single woman over 25."

WELL ONE DAY IN BED THREE

That Was the Life of Mrs. Hollister Until she Began Taking Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound

Wyandotte, Michigan. — "After my baby was born I did not do my own work for six months and could hardly take care of my own baby. I always had a pain in my right side and it was so bad I was getting round shoulders. I would feel well one day and then feel so bad for three or four days that I would be in bed. One Sunday my mother came to see how I was, and she said a friend told her to tell me to try Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. So the next day I got a bottle and before it was half taken I got relief. After I was well again I went to the doctor and he asked me how I was getting along. I told him I was taking Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, and he said it did not hurt any one to take it. I am always recommending the Vegetable Compound to others and I always have a bottle of it on hand."—Mrs. HENRY HOLLISTER, R. F. D. No. 1, Box 7, Wyandotte, Mich.

For Sore, Lame
Muscles

Ask for a tube of "Joint Ease." You can use it several times in one evening for quick results, because it goes right through the skin with only a few seconds' rubbing and gets right to the seat of the trouble. It surely is a swift penetrator and when it gets under the skin, it darts right in to take the soreness out of muscles and chase away the lameness.

That's why athletes use it so much. Often over night the lameness and soreness disappear and the ambitious athlete is quickly back in the game again.

Baseball players, prizefighters, bicycle riders, football players as well as those who play golf, tennis and other games, are fast discovering that Joint Ease is far and away ahead of anything they have ever used.

All druggists have sold hundreds of tubes of it and any druggist anywhere in America will praise this grand emollient—60 cents a tube.

NEWS OF MISSOURI CITIES AND TOWNS

Jefferson City, Mo., May 13.—Because he got tired of changing his boarding house every day to elude police who were aware of his presence in the city, Fremont Galbrieth is practically a volunteer prisoner in the Cole County jail following his escape of several months ago. He said Kansas City police hounded his trail so much he got drunk and surrendered.

Brookfield, Mo., May 13.—Mr. Ed Toocy is an ardent supporter of the city garden plan. He is erecting a green house here which will be a model of efficiency. In addition to being a good thing to keep one employed Toocy finds his work profitable. A 100 foot bed of lettuce found a ready market with local grocers.

Rolla, Mo., May 13.—The mayor together with the out going board of aldermen met here this week in regular session, wound up the affairs of the town and then adjourned sine die. The newly elected officials were sworn in and records turned over to them.

Jefferson City, May 13.—Announcement was made today that the Missouri fruit crop has, so far, escaped the ravishes of frost and that a good crop of early fruits may be expected. E. A. Logan of the United States Bureau of Agriculture says the apple crop is 82 per cent normal compared to 30 per cent at this time last year. The peach crop condition also beats last year's report at this time being 60 per cent normal as compared with but 40 per cent last year. Cherries and plums are reported at 77 per cent and strawberries at 96 per cent.

Jefferson City, Mo., May 13.—We have with us the railroad lobby, the power lobby and the public utilities lobby. Now, a new one is added to the ranks—the lobby of "rub doctors." According to report filed with the office of secretary of state here The Missouri State Chiropractors' Association spent $5,135.07 during the recent legislative session in furthering chiropractic legislation. The backwrenchers sought state recognition and waged a battle for a bill to create a State Board of Chiropractic Examiners. It was passed by the house but killed in the Senate.

Chillicothe, Mo., May 13.—The inugeration of the new Chillicothe-Brookfield bus line took place here Monday. The route traversed by the busses is twenty-eight miles, and is in direct competition to the railroad lines.

Columbia, Mo., May 12.—The University hospital here held a unique homecoming here Tuesday afternoon when 146 babies who have been born in the hospital during the past ten years attended a party on the new roof garden of the hospital.

The kids were registered, weighed, feasted on ice cream cones and given souvenirs of the occasion. The celebration is being held in connection with the observance of National Hospital Day and the aniversary of the birth of Florence Nightingale.

Centralia, Mo., May 13.—The Chamber of Commerce committee which attended the conference at Columbia, Monday has returned here with a report that immediate action will be forthcoming on some plan for hard surfacing the main county roads. Committees have been appointed to investigate the legal aspects of the project and to determine and work out the details. Two cross state highways which run through here will be paved this summer but the Chamber of Commerce aims to reach those sections which are not affected by this work.

Canton, Mo., May 13.—Culver-Stockton college is to have the rare privilege of entertaining and hearing Dr. James Moffat, noted English professor of Glasgow, Scotland. The famous professor will deliver an address here.

Boonville, Mo., May 13.—No report has been had as to the whereabouts of the two thieves who entered the postoffice and the Missouri Pacific depot at Lamine yesterday and escaped with $100 in cash. Blood hounds from Sedalia are being used in attempting to track the robbers. This is the second time within the last three months that the postoffice has been robbed.

Columbia, Mo., May 13.—Dr. Shailer Mathews, Dean of Divinity, University of Chicago, will deliver the baccalaureate address before the graduates of Missouri University at the eighty-third commencement, it was announced today.

Jefferson City, Mo., May 13.—The State Board of Health of Missouri will carry forward its resort sanitation campaign during the coming summer and will furnish "Seal of Safety" certificates to all resorts where the water supply, sewage disposal and general sanitation is found to be satisfactory according to Dr. James Stewart, State Health Commissioner.

200 Railroad Crossings in State Eliminated

Jefferson City, May 14.—Two hundred railroad grade crossings have been eliminated in Missouri by the state highway department and forty others are scheduled to go this year, it was announced today by B. H. Piepmeier, chief engineer of the department.

Elimination of the grade crossing is one of the most important phases of the highway department's work, the chief engineer said.

There are approximately fifty grade crossing eliminations palnned or in course of construction on the highway system and forty others are contemplated for this year, according to the chief engineer.

2nd Successive Week Unseasonable Weather

Day Temperature Last Week As Rule Was Below 70 Degrees—Unfavorable for Growing Crops.

For Week ending Tuesday, May 12.

Columbia, Mo.—In Missouri the week just ended was the second successive week of unseasonably cool weather. The prevailing low temperatures, with rather inadequate sunshine, were unfavorable for crops except the most hardy. A moderate but timely and general rain on the 9th was of much benefit and freshened all vegetation very much. Had it been a warmer rain the beneficial effects would have been marked.

The day temperatures were as a rule below 70 degrees. During the first part of the week night temperatures were below 40 degrees, and frost occurred on the 6th; there was no material damage; during the latter part of the week the nights were relatively warmer, though still too cool for vegetable growth. The total rainfall was less than normal, the general rainfall on the 9th, however, was opportune and of much benefit.

Corn planting continued, though seemingly farmers have been in no rush to finish the work since the cool weather began. Grain planted just before the cool spell and rain is not germinating so well. The early planted is up to good stands in southern sections, but needs warmth and sunshine. Much of it has been cultivated once or twice. As a rule, the fields are free of grass and in good shape. The early corn has not been seriously hurt by frost.

Wheat has shown no damage or setback from the low temperatures. The main crop continued to make normal growth, and the general condition is satisfactory. Most of it is in the jointing stage; and in southern sections it is coming into boot and in the first stage of head forming. Oats are showing up fairly well, but warm showers would be beneficial.

Alfalfa was nipped by frost but has recovered since the rain; the advanced crop is nearly ready for first cutting. Gardens and truck crops in general need warm showers. The commercial strawberry crop was damaged somewhat by frost; warm, sunny weather is needed. Some dropping of apples and peaches reported. The weather has been too cool for cotton, but the young plants have not been hurt.

(Hopkins Journal)

It seems that Billy Miles was not appointed deputy sheriff of Nodaway county to act as a wall flower. He has instructions from his superior officer, to "go to it," and from reports he has "been going some." Anyway, the town already presents, at least, "a much quieter appearance."

He will assist and be assisted by "Big Leonard," our chief of police, and this combination is a pair hard to get away from.

Fast driving, open cut-outs and other infractions of traffic regulations will be stopped.

Fast driving is the worst thing small towns have to contend with and extreme precaution must be taken to prevent accidents. Complaint has been made lately of too much reckless driving, especially along the residential streets and it must be stopped or the guilty ones will be made to suffer the extreme limit of the law.

The cut-out fiend, too, can arrange to pay a fine if he continues to run with the cut-out open. A word to the wise should be sufficient so we will let it go at that.

"Be good and you'll be happy."

AFRAID TO LOOK IN MIROR

"When my fourth child was nursing I got so poor and thin that I looked like a skeleton. I weighed only one hundred and six pounds. It almost scared me to look in the mirror," said Mrs. Hester J. Stoy of Peru, Kans., Route 1, Box 31. (Picture above.) "I took five bottles of Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription and it did me much good. I just kept on getting fleshy; I now weigh one hundred and eighty pounds. I have had my daughter take Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription for nervousness and fainting spells and it has done her much good. I can heartily recommend it for feminine trouble."

Your health is most important to you, mothers. It's easily improved. Just ask your nearest druggist for this Prescription of Dr. Pierce's in tablet or liquid form. Send 10c for trial pkg. to Dr. Pierce's Invalids' Hotel, Buffalo, N. Y., or write for free advice.

RESULTS THAT LAST!

Proven by Maryville People.

Thousands of kidney suffereds have tried remedy after remedy with only temporary benefit. That's mighty discouraging! But one kidney remedy has earned a reputation for lasting results and there's plenty of proof right here in Maryville.

Read the experience of one who used Doan's Pills years ago and now makes her endorsement even stronger.

Mrs. Martha Partridge, 901 E. Fourth St., Maryville, says: "I suffered from kidney complaint and felt languid. I used Doan's Pills and received great relief and I am glad to recommend them."

A FEW YEARS LATER, Mrs. Partridge said: "I wish to confirm my former statement as to the benefits obtained from using Doan's Pills. I have had no return of the trouble since Doan's cured me."

Hog House Is Not Hard to Remodel For Better Light

Often a farmer has a good hog house, but has discovered that the lighting is very poor, especially for early spring farrowing. But this situation may be easily remedied. It is not difficult to cut new openings in the walls and roof of a house and place new windows, without in any way injuring the building.

By properly setting in the new window the house will be as tight as before, and the extra sunlight will add warmth. In placing these new windows size and location must be considered with care.

The windows should be on the south side of the building. They should be large enough to admit all the light that is needed. A window in the roof will let in a great deal more light than a window of the same size in the wall. As much as four square feet of glass per pen has been used. The average pen used is 8x8 feet.

The windows also must be placed so that the direct rays of the sun will fall upon the bed or nest. About March 1 the sun angle is such that the light strikes the floor 4 feet 4 inches from the point beneath the window. Thus a window, whether in the wall or the roof of the house, may be accurately placed to secure best results.

It's Real Economy to Own One of These Hay Loaders

One man and driver can, with this hay loader, build a load in 25 per cent less time than it takes three men to do it by hand. Hence you can save the wages of at least one man, also a precious 15 minutes during every hour the loader is in use. Your boy can drive the team.

In case labor is scarce, or you have other tasks for your men, you and your boy can handle this loader nicely.

New Deere Hay Loader

WITH FLOATED GATHERING CYLINDER

does away with the back-breaking method of pitching hay onto the load, and you get a cleaner job.

It is capable of handling the lightest swath or heaviest windrow. The flexible floated gathering cylinder gets all the clean hay and leaves the trash.

The hay is handled gently by the gathering fingers and the elevating fingers—there is little chance of the valuable foliage parts falling off. It is the most satisfactory loader for handling ripe clover for seed, and for harvesting beans.

Flexibility allows loader to follow uneven surfaces and pass over obstructions without digging in.

The lightest-draft loader of its type. Famous wheelbarrow mount puts weight equally on both sides of main wheels—prevents sagging of frame. Automatic hitch saves lifting. Unhitches from the load instantly by man on the load. Durable—all parts slow-driven.

Come in and let us show you the many features of the John Deere-Dain Hay tools.
